Our Views About HR & Talent

We have an established and effective HR management and structure which provide a robust appraisal, compensation and reward system is required to keep the right talent. An effective HR capital management is integral to the success of the company as it is the talent in an organisation that propels the company to greater heights.

Students' Feedback

Students who interned with us felt the internship we have provided has given them a wholesome experience of being exposed to actual working conditions and learning on the job. In the short period they were here, they have gained greater insights on the job scope through tasks given by their supervisors.

How have we collaborated with IHLs

We started our collaboration with SIM GE to get interns to undergo training & understanding the business processes & flows in a SME organisation. We currently have 2 interns for a start and hope to collaborate with more organisations in future.
